Anthony Porter and Lynne Booth
6-7 November 2010 in Bristol in a unique workshop collaboration
All qualified reflexologists are welcome to attend

£220 early-bird price till 31.08.10 (£240 full price)

ART & VRT for Musculo/Skeletal problems and Endocrine and Gynaecological issues

ART and VRT are internationally respected advanced reflexology techniques. Experience highly effective techniques from the originators using a combination of Lynne Booth's weight-bearing Vertical Reflexology and Tony Porter's ART techniques.

Practical hands-on demonstration and tuition, focusing on specific physiological conditions with accompanying handouts. All qualified reflexologists are eligible to join us in this new ground-breaking weekend.

Limited places: option to book on-line at www.boothvrt

This workshop will be of enormous benefit to both client and practitioner. For example, Tony and Lynne have discovered that, with their techniques, treatments of 15-20 minutes can sometimes be more effective than 60 minutes of conventional reflexology and reach a wider client base. VRT and ART techniques can also be very easily integrated into your classical full length sessions as well to enhance your own repertoire.

Tony and Lynne will teach their own specific techniques as well as combining forces to demonstrate the versatility and range of ART and VRT when used in combination. We will look at sample treatments for backache and other conditions which confront reflexologists.

- VRT adapted sequence for hands and feet.
 - Weight-bearing reflexes and Sports injuries
 - Endocrine techniques using VRT Nail-working
 - Pain and Mobility issues for older people
- ART treatment protocols, Gynaecological problems
 - Common back and spinal problems
 - General Hormonal issues
 - Hypothyroid, discussion of symptoms and treatment
